Mountain House

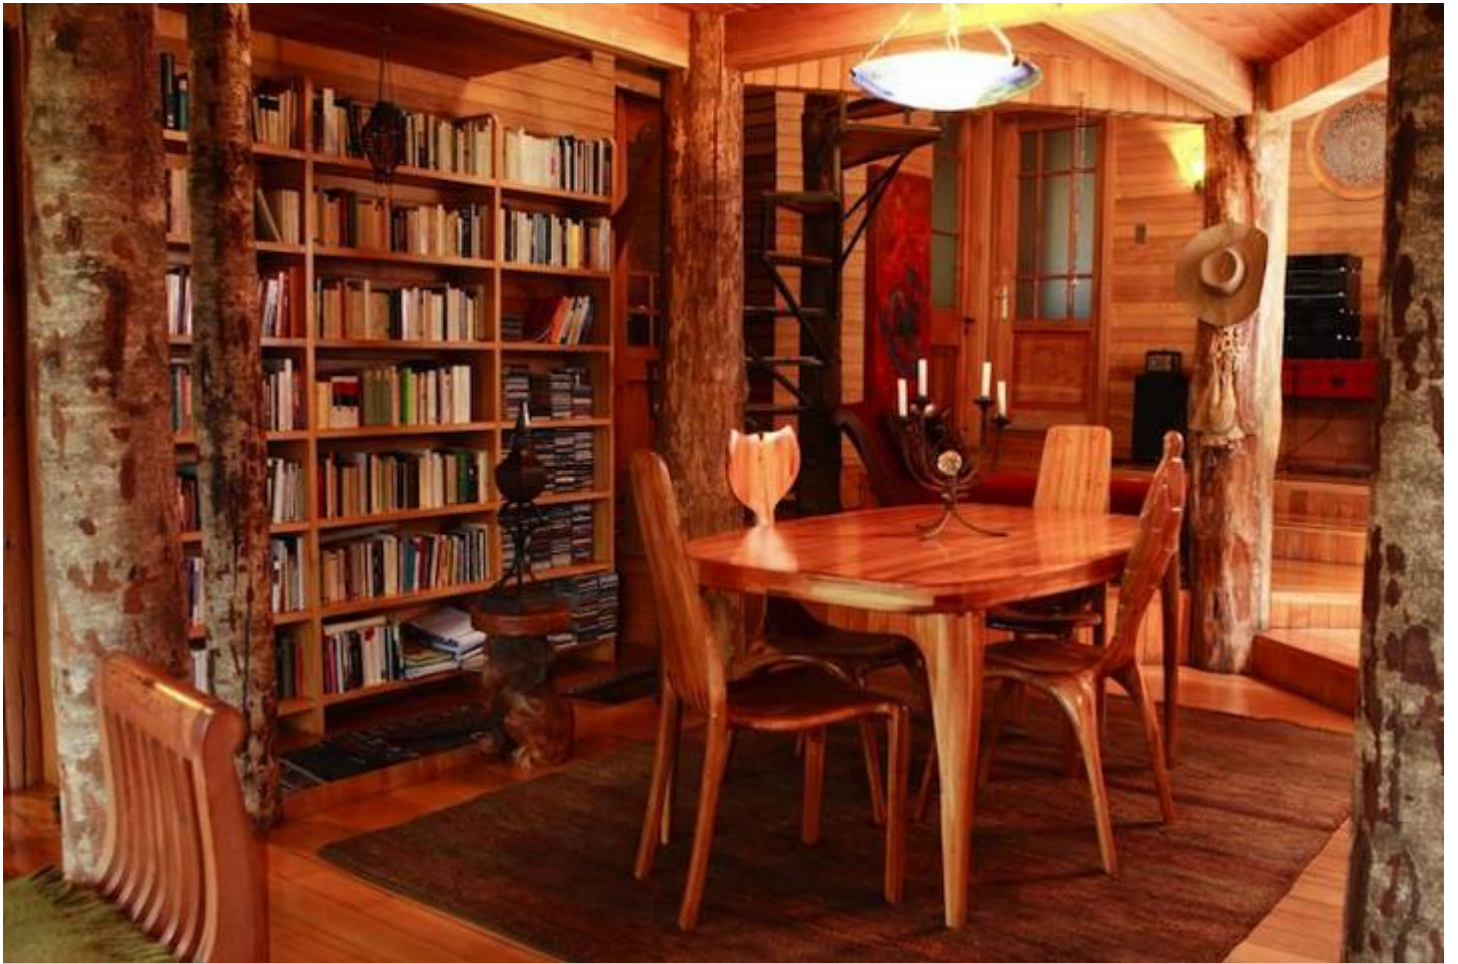

A new design for lodging

Andes Mountain House is located in the Central Andes, only 25 km away from Santiago, in the Cajón del Maipo Valley. Surrounded by mountains and native forest, this uniquely designed guest house was built on the slope of the Andes Range at 1.000 m above sea level. From here you can access national parks, 6.000 m high mountains, rivers for rafting, ski centers, trekking circuits, horse rides, natural hot springs, local mountain culture and all the flora and fauna of this area, such as Condors, Pumas, Vizcachas, etc.
